ABOUT Chew...

Chew is all about celebrating the quality of world artisan bites - without the formality. We let the ingredients do the talking so you can too - all of our plates are designed to be shared with friends while you chew the fat and catch up!

We keep our menu small, just like our larder, because we believe this means fresher ingredients, seasonal produce, and constantly rotating the menu based on supply - A smaller menu means less wastage, fresher food, and a better environment!

We are currently in our just-starting-off stage, so we would love your feedback! Chat to us at the bar, or drop us a mail at chew@thebigromance.ie if you prefer.
